To speak less in the abstract, this is a quick idea of what I was thinking.

Ex. 5 Deliberative Process (DP)

I also included the version I am working on where I didn't move things around.

Let me know which direction you prefer and I will move forward that way (I think the quickview is cleaner and more straightforward at addressing the SAB comments, but it will include more red-lined text).

I filled in my remaining response to comments answers... they should be good enough for the next round of discussion/revision.

Hi Andrew, hope you are feeling better. We had a productive BaP team meeting yesterday. We discussed what each of us still had left to do and about how long we thought it would take. Ravi made the suggestion that we prioritize drafting our responses to the response to comment document on the sharedrive. All of us present thought we would be able to have draft responses by Friday. Even if the response is very draft, the thought was that we could share this document with management and flag any sticky issues. But if you are done with your responses, please move forward with your proposed changes in the tox review and supp info. I don't want to hold that part up, we just thought it would make sense to get a decent response to comments pulled together first.
